

A group of women in a self-help group, wearing colorful headwraps and working together. The image is split into two halves: the left half shows a close-up of two women, one in a purple headwrap and another in a red headwrap, both wearing red long-sleeved shirts. The right half is a blurred background of a group of women in similar attire, with a semi-transparent pink overlay. The text 'SELF HELP GROUP IS NOT FOR DEVELOPMENT?' is written in large, white, bold, sans-serif capital letters across the right half.

SELF HELP GROUP IS NOT FOR DEVELOPMENT?

Mkanibwa Ngoboka, Hawa Jumanne,
Brown Mwasebya & Lupiana Samwel
Ruaha Catholic University

INTRODUCTION

Context:

Women participation in economic activities is important for development. However they do not have resources

SHG: SOURCE OF CAPITAL

Implication:

women participation in development will be evidenced

SHG: SAVING FACILITIES

Implication:

Will help to access saving services for social-economic development

SHG: MOBILIZATION OF OPPORTUNITIES

Implication:

women with innovative enterprise

CONCLUSION

SHG affect positively women participation in development of opportunities

