Ambassador Mette
Nørgaard
DissingSpandet

Ambassador of Denmark
to Tanzania

Remarks from REPOA's Core Partners

Mette Nørgaard Dissing-Spandet is the Danish Ambassador to Tanzania. She is credited with her work in support of multilateralism, human rights, peace and security. She joined the Danish Ministry of Foreign affairs in 1998. Prior to her appointment as Danish Ambassador to Tanzania in 2019, Ambassador Mette served in different positions including the International Law Department; the MENA Department; and the Africa Department. She also served as the Legal Advisor to the Security Council Team of Danish UN Mission in New York; Senior Adviser to the Danish Minister for Climate Change and Energy; Senior Adviser and Team Leader responsible for Afghanistan in the Stabilization Department. Further, as Senior Advisor in the EU Law Department she headed The Danish EU Presidency trilogue negotiations on access to information. From 2012 to 2016, Ambassador Mette served as Deputy Head and Head of Department, Human Rights Department. From 2016 to 2019 she was Head of Department - Public International Law and Human Rights. A lawyer by profession, Ambassador Mette earned her Masters of Law at Copenhagen University. Her Majesty the Queen Margrethe II, the Queen of the Kingdom of Denmark, has awarded Ambassador Mette with the Knight of the Order of Dannebrog.

Remarks from the European Union on regional efforts to sustain competitive trade and resilience to climate change

Ambassador Manfredo started his career at the EU in 1993. He has always been working in the external relations of the EU with the countries of Eastern Europe and Central Asia, later with the Maghreb countries, in addition to Latin America and the Caribbean. He has led the Delegation of the EU in Tanzania since 2019 and is responsible for the management of all other activities of the Delegation. As representative of the European External Action Service acting under the authority of the High Representative and Vice President (HRVP), the EU Ambassador carries out at the level of the partner country, the EU foreign policy as the HRVP determines at central level. This task is implemented according to the mandate of the Council of the European Union, which is the institution gathering the Ministers of all EU Member States. Just as the HRVP chairs the meetings of the Foreign Affairs Council, so the EU Ambassador chairs the meetings of the EU Member States Ambassadors in Tanzania.
